

Agnes Mae Hughes

September 24, 1926 - May 1, 2020

Agnes Mae Hughes, age 93, of the Whitehouse Community passed away Friday May 1, 2020 in the Whitehouse Community. She was the daughter of Jim and Sarah (Belle) Harris McGee, born September 24, 1926 in Mineral Springs. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Ted; a daughter Reba Hughes; two brothers Hugh and Emmett McGee; two sisters Katherine Jones and Nancy Sorum; a son-in-law John Cole and granddaughter Amanda Cole.

Agnes loved to crochet, solve puzzles, spend time with family and grow vegetables in her own garden. She was an avid reader, always looked forward to family gatherings, visits and phone calls from friends and loved ones. She was a good Christian and regularly attended services at the Whitehouse Church of Christ.

Agnes was known as a genuine and terrific human being, who always had a smile for everyone. She welcomed others into her home with big country breakfasts, delicious zucchini bread, fresh vegetables from her garden, and mostly her sincere heart. She cared deeply for all, and especially for the children in the family. A way she showed it was with making quilts, afghans and personalized crocheted stuffed animals for Christmas and other special occasions. She leaves behind a legacy to all who knew her, not just family! What a pure, intelligent, strong and beautiful woman she was!

Agnes is survived by her children Paul Wayne Hughes and his wife Kathleen of Elkins; Gerald Hughes and his wife Ivett of Houston Texas, Ivan Hughes and his wife Melissa of the Whitehouse Community; Eloise Cole of the Whitehouse Community; five siblings, two brothers and three sisters Blanche Burris of West Fork, James McGee and his wife Joan of Independence, Missouri, Wilma Laha and her husband Troy of Little Rock, Bill McGee of Augusta, Kansas and Marinel Mills and her husband Harry of West Fork; brother-in-law Paul Sorum of Glenville, Minnesota; eight grandchildren; 18 great grandchildren; 7 great-great grandchildren and numerous nieces, nephews, friends and church family.

A private family service will be held with interment at Whitehouse Cemetery.

“ Paul Wayne, Gerald, Ivan and Eloise, Our deepest sympathy for the loss of your wonderful mother! I have fond memories of Agnes. She was a hard worker, kind, caring and loving lady! When I told Dad (Charles Vernon Hughes) about Agnes, he talked about her for 2 days! He said that she always sent him a Christmas and Birthday card! Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers! Georgie & Vickie (Hughes) Henson: Charles V. Hughes

“ Mrs. Hughes was and always will be a beautiful soul God had blessed us with who knew her. She will be dearly missed. Her selflessness to share her love with her great grand children by making mini stuffed animals for them on Xmas will be a staple in their hearts forever. Olga Castronovo and I send our deepest condolences to the Hughes family. RIP beloved Mother, Grandmother, and friend to all.

“ Visiting Agnes at her home was always part of the great memories we made when we visited Arkansas. I always enjoyed her delicious zucchini bread or having breakfast with her while admiring all the beautiful birds feeding from her bird houses. I was always intrigued by the all time she devoted to making all of the crochet figures to be the highlight of Christmas.
Agnes you will never be forgotten your memories will stay with us.

“ From Evelyn Trejos.
I remember one time Agnes & were meeting Gerald at a restaurant near his job. I made a turn that made us get lost arrive an hour later. Agnes just laughed with me about it.
She will always be in our hearts forever.
