“ When we moved to Fayetteville Annie warmly welcomed me to PEO Chapter DA where I enjoyed so many meetings at her home complete with a generous meal provided by Annie. It was such a pleasure to experience the warmth I felt just entering her home. Love you Annie.

“ We are sad, but heartened of her passing, as we know she was in the best of care and that she passed peacefully. Her hugs will always be remembered, as well as her always bountiful kitchen, and home cozyed with her timeless quilts she made ♡. She will always be thought of often with Uncle Bob,what a joyful pair those two, -- we can be sure they are smiling down upon all of us.

Blessings to you, Aunt Annie,
Love,
