“ Kathy was the first of us grandchildren It was always exciting going to see Kathy and Kelly at grandmas house. There was lots of giggling and fun times. We looked up to Kathy she always had our best interests at heart I learned recently to never tell her I liked something she was wearing or she would give it to you and would say she wants you to have it. I'll miss her selfless loving caring kind spirit she carried inside and her beautiful smile always, love her cousin Sherri.
