“ My Poo I will miss you every day when you would come in to wake me and bring me a cup of coffee. You were the most loving husband even though I know now you were so sick and in pain. You always thought of me first before yourself. I know you are with our many family members and feeling no pain. I am so grateful that I know you will be waiting for me when I join you in parodies. I will always love you and keep you in my heart until we are together again. Your loving wife Poo

“ I moved from Fayetteville a little over 30 years ago. I always enjoyed coming back home to see him, always a fun trip when Dan was involved. While we spoke often, those times we didn't, I always thought of him. Big brother, while I will miss you tremendously, you will never be forgotten.

“ You were a great neighbor of ours for eleven years. You always had the right kind of tool I needed for my flowers and were happy to share, and we always had a can of whatever you needed to get supper started for Betty. I will continue to think of you every time I wear the Oleg Cassini wool & cashmere coat you gave me just before the Salvation Army grabbed it! WC will miss you keeping him up to date on the world of sports. You were our favorite neighbor and we wish you a joyful rest in Paradise.
