“ May the LORD our savior receive you in His loving arms. I was blessed to know you and call you sister. Barry, and children, be steadfast in the LORD and know that He awaits us all. There is no more suffering nor sorrow, no worries to be. The banquet at the LORDS table needs no reservation. just as a parent will wait for their children so does the Lord wait for us. Margaret was a woman of faith and family, she took her role as wife and mother to heart and became the best she possibly could be. And I personally thank her for that. These last 27 years she shared with my brother were happy years for him. Rest in the pwace of our LORD. your loving sister in law, Kitty Jimenez.
