

Sharon Lynn (Page) Gleason

August 21, 1943 - August 29, 2020

Sharon Lynn (Page) Gleason, 77, of Siloam Springs passed away peacefully on August 29, 2020 while surrounded by her family. She was born August 21, 1943 in Fayetteville, the daughter of Jack and Sydney Page.

Sharon grew up in Fayetteville and attended Fayetteville High school, graduating with the class of 1961 before going on to attend the University of Arkansas. After completing her education, Sharon went to work for the State of Arkansas Employment Security Division where she worked for 36 years until her retirement in 2010. Throughout her life, Sharon had a deep love and appreciation for wildlife, especially horses and elephants. She was a member of the Sierra Club and supported their cause proudly.

Sharon is survived by her husband of 54 years, Don Gleason, and their sons Derek and his wife Cindy of Fayetteville, and Dallas and his wife Christi of Fayetteville, sister-in-law Neila Page, as well as nieces, nephews, cousins and other extended family members. She was preceded in death by her parents, Jack and Sydney Page, and her brother Jack Page Jr.

Arrangements are being made by Moore's Chapel in Fayetteville, no service is planned at this time. Donations can be made in Sharon's honor to any local animal shelter.
