

Sharon Peacock Ladut

February 3, 1954 - October 29, 2019

Sharon Peacock Ladut, age 65, of Fayetteville passed away Tuesday October 29, 2019 in Fayetteville. She was born February 3, 1954 in Pine Bluff, Arkansas. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Sharon was beautiful. She was humble and kind. She loved her brothers and was proud of them in every way. She cherished them and loved how they cherished her. She loved the Ladut family and often referred to her sister in laws as her best friends. She loved New Orleans and her friends there. Justin was her heart and she will live on through him. Jenna was her bonus daughter and Sharon loved her. Their marriage was her deepest joy. We got a glimpse of the kind of grandmother she would be by the way she showed interest in her great nieces and nephews and other little ones in her life. She wanted to know more about Jesus, she was just a little shy about it. But she outran us all, especially her brothers - I can see her spunky little self, sticking out her tongue at them in triumph! Now she knows our Lord in His full glory and penetrating love in a way that only the Trinity can display.

She is survived by her son Justin Ladut and his wife Jenna of New Orleans, Louisiana; three brothers Jimmy and Frankie Peacock of Huntsville; Ronnie and Phyllis Peacock of Franklin, Tennessee and Mike and Marilyn Peacock of Fayetteville.

Memorial Service will be held 10:00 a.m. Saturday November 2, 2019 at Fellowship Bible Church in the Chapel in Rogers.

“ I knew Sharon through her visits with Mike and Marilyn. The close bonds she shared with her brothers and their loving support for each other was so evident as I watched her battle extremely difficult circumstances in her life over the last several years. Through it all, she maintained a hopeful attitude and was a light to others. Sharon was a gentle soul, easy to be with, and I am saddened by her passing. My heart goes out to her family as they process this tragic loss.

“ I am so saddened to read this today. Sharon was always a good friend growing up in school at McGehee. She was cute, funny, witty, intelligent, just the kind of girl you wanted your own children to be like. Sharon was a great athlete too. Unfortunately back in those days before Title IX, high schools didn't have athletic teams for girls like exists today. Sharon was the fastest girl in our class, maybe the school. I remember once Sharon races Freddie Douglas, the fastest guy in our class and she won!

Regrettably, like so many of us do, after graduation from MHS, we lost touch with one another. After reconnecting with Sharon's brother, Ronnie on Facebook, I sent her a note but never heard back from Sharon.

I offer my deepest, most humble and sincere condolences to Sharon's family. I know she was loved, admired and respected by family and friends alike because she was at McGehee when we were growing up as kids and teens.

A friend always,
Joe Davis
