“ Greetings Tyrone II and Nakia.
Words can not express my deepest condolences for the lost of our beloved Shirley.
My prayer to you and the family is that we remember the great times and love we all shared throughout the years.

Back in the days gone by, when I spent time with Shirley in what we called the "Big Day in Marshall, was one of the best times of my life with her. I always enjoyed my time with her when I visited her in Houston and the many phone conversations we had when she lived in Arkansas.

Shirley was a fun-loving cousin that I will truly miss. Nevertheless, I knew she was ready to be with her beloved Lent and Tyrone. Until we meet again, my the Lord give you peace and comfort in your time of need.

Love,

Joyce

“ Shirley was a good friend. I sat for 6 hours with her as she was dying but I feel bad that I wasn't with her when she passed. I am unable to go to her funeral as my daughter is having surgery on her lung at that time. I will miss Shirley.
